Current Research Responsibilities

Principal Investigator, Monitoring the Future: A Continuing Study of American Youth (MTF). Funded under a series of investigator-initiated, competing research grants from the National Institute on Drug Abuse, this ongoing national study of American secondary school students, college students, and adults through age 55 is now in its 39th year. Epidemiological, etiological, and policy research on the use of cigarettes, alcohol, illicit drugs, steroids, and risk behaviors for the spread of HIV/AIDS. (Co-Investigators: Jerald G. Bachman, Patrick M. O’Malley, John E. Schulenberg, Richard A. Miech, John Wallace, Jennifer Maggs & Megan Patrick.) www.monitoringthefuture.org

Principal Investigator, the Youth, Education, and Society (YES) study. Now in its 17th year, and funded under research grants from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, this national study includes the evaluation of policies, programs, practices, and other environmental influences (particularly at secondary schools, but also at the community and state levels) on smoking, drinking, illicit drug use, healthy eating, exercise, and obesity among American adolescents. (Co-principal Investigators: Patrick M. O’Malley, Natalie Colabianchi; co-investigators Jerald G. Bachman, John E. Schulenberg, Revathy Kumar.) www.yesresearch.org
